Scranton, Pennsylvania

Dear Mr. Scranton:

Thank you for your letter of 18 July 1960 concerning

STAT

We do have an application from STAT which she completed after an interview with one of our personnel representatives in her area. At present, her papers are being held until we receive a report on tests which she is taking STAT

Your recommendation of STAT is appreciated. You may be sure that her application will be considered most carefully to determine whether there is an opening compatible with her interests and skills.

Sincerely,
